

BUILD YOUR FUTURE:

Intro to Skilled Trades — Learn. Create. Succeed.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Upon completing the Introduction to Skilled Trades course, students will gain foundational knowledge and hands-on training in key areas including; Foundations, Wall and Floor framing, Roof systems, Exterior finishes, and essential safety practices aligned with OSHA 10 standards. The course also includes introduction to fundamental concepts in residential electrical, plumbing, and HVAC systems, providing a well-rounded overview of the skilled trades industry.

This course is perfect for beginners, requiring no prior experience of knowledge, making it an ideal starting point for those interested in exploring the trades.

COURSE DATE/TIMES

- » Class is held on Tuesdays and Thursdays
- » June 5 - Sept. 2, 2025 OR Sept. 11 - Dec. 11, 2025
- » 8:30am - 4:30pm

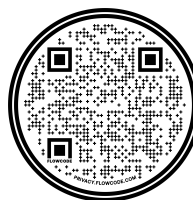

COURSE FEE

- » $1800.00

JOB OPPORTUNITIES WITH A BACKGROUND IN SKILLED TRADES

The successful completion of the Introduction to Skilled Trades course equips students with the essential entry-level skills needed to pursue careers in carpentry, residential electrical, residential plumbing and residential HVAC systems.

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO REGISTER

OR www.FWD-Center.com/program

CONTACT INFORMATION

Questions? Contact George Merz
gmerz2@monroecc.edu | 585-685-6112

FWD»CENTER

FINGER LAKES WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT CENTER

Powered by Monroe Community College